

The Iowa Soybean Association On-Farm Network™

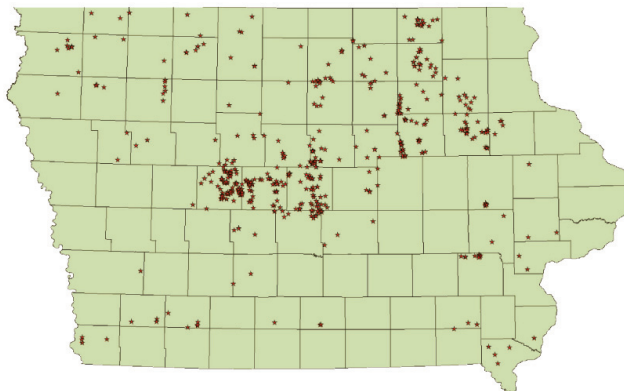

On-Farm Network™ Trials for 2005

- Fall vs. spring nitrogen application
- Fall vs. sidedress nitrogen application
- Preplant vs. sidedress nitrogen application
- Manure management
- In-line ripping
- Soybean inoculants
- Routine fungicide use on soybeans
- Foliar feeding of soybeans
- pH and lime

Current watershed programs are located in:

West Buttrick Creek
South Fork of the Iowa River
Boone River
Pike Run

Locations of 2004 Agronomy Trials and Watershed Programs

Thank You!

The following groups help fund or provide services for
On-Farm Network™ programming:

- Iowa Soybean Promotion Board
- Iowa Department of Agriculture and Land Stewardship, Integrated Farm and Livestock Management program
- Iowa State University
- USDA Natural Resource Conservation Service
- Environmental Defense
- The Nature Conservancy
- The Altria Family of Companies, through a grant from the Shared Solutions Agricultural Initiative
- AgVantage FS
- PrairieLand Cooperative
- West Central Cooperative
- Farmers Cooperative
- DeBruce Ag Service, Inc.
- John Deere AMS
- Pioneer Hi-Bred International (a DuPont Company)

For more information on these and other On-Farm Network™ programs, contact:
Iowa Soybean Association • 4554 114th Street • Urbandale, IA 50322
(800) 383-1423 • www.iasoybeans.com • www.isafarmnet.com